Dear Mr. Wilson:

Because of a claimed "mistake" by the shipping company or companies handling the shipment of the belongings of Caroline Letkeman and myself, including what I need to complete my opposition to Scientology's summary judgment, our shipment has been sent to another port in another country. Obviously, I suspect that this is no "mistake" and that the people who seek my obliteration pursuant to their policy are involved. I am, of course, investigating as feasible, and making whatever security arrangements are possible to protect our belongings. I have no guarantee when our shipment will be reshipped to us, but I will require at least another month extension for completing my opposition to the summary judgment motion.

I must send my request to the Marin Court right away, so please let me know immediately if you will agree to an extension of a month.

Yours sincerely,

Gerry Armstrong

RE: Church of Scientology International v. Armstrong, et al..
Case No.: CV021632

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

On Thursday, February 5, 2004, I filed a Plaintiff's Response to Defendant's Gerald Armstrong's Request for Extension of Time to File Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment. I served it upon you, via regular mail and overnight mail. Unfortunately, we mistakenly used a regular "overnight" envelope rather than an international airways bill and the overnight envelope served upon you, via Federal Express, was returned. However, that same day, I received a call from the Court Clerk asking me if I was willing to have the hearing on the Motion for Summary Judgment extended to a later date. I informed the Clerk I intended to file papers that day indicating such a willingness. Later that same day, I received a second call from the Court Clerk indicating that the new date to hear the Summary Judgment is March 16, 2004, at 9:00 a.m. Further, the Mandatory Settlement Conference is now scheduled for March 29, at 10:30 a.m., and the Trial date is now set for April 9, 2004.

We will send you a copy of the Court's Order upon receipt of the same.

Very truly yours,

WILSON CAMPILONGO LLP

Andrew H. Wilson
